About Singing Lessons with Georgie:

Georgie's singing lessons are a supportive, encouraging and joyful space to explore your voice, learn to sing and achieve your vocal goals. She empowers students to embrace their individuality and develop self-confidence whilst building a foundation in safe and efficient evidence-based vocal technique. Whether you want to learn how to sing for fun, advance your technique, prepare for auditions/exams/live performances, or create a career in music — Georgie is here to guide you on your vocal journey!

Georgie can coach you in singing elements such as breathing, pitch, tone, resonance, increasing vocal range, singing in head/chest voice/falsetto, navigating your break, riffs and runs, voice care, projection, belt, twang, mixing, stylistic song interpretation, expressing/acting through song, performance, stage confidence, songwriting and artist development. Essential and relevant musicianship skills are integrated into lessons in a fun and simple way, with an opportunity to delve deeper into music theory, aural training and sight-singing if you wish.

Georgie's Background and Experience:

Georgie Taylor is a warm and enthusiastic singing teacher, as well as singer-songwriter, musical theatre performer and multi-instrumentalist based in Brisbane, Australia. Georgie's singing journey spans over 15 years of dedicated vocal training, specialising in musical theatre, classical and pop/contemporary styles. She has a Bachelor of Musical Theatre from the Queensland Conservatorium of Music alongside a decade of songwriting and performing experience as a contemporary singer-songwriter. She has performed on countless stages and festivals across QLD and NSW such as QPAC's Melbourne Green and Lyric Theatre, Woodford Folk Festival, Tamworth Country Music Festival and Gympie Music Muster.

Georgie has First Aid, Mental Health First Aid, and Working With Children Check (Blue Card).
