

Awards Policy

Rationale

Corinda State High School recognises outstanding student achievement through the presentation of awards at timely junctures throughout the school year. This policy outlines the criteria a student needs to meet to receive each type of award, how often the award is presented, and at which event or ceremony the award is presented. It also outlines the nomination process for students and how a decision is reached, eg Special Awards. It is intended to make the process clear for the school community. Unless otherwise stated, a student needs to fulfil all of the criteria for a particular award to be considered.

This policy addresses awards where Corinda State High School holds the responsibility to:

1. decide who will receive the award; and
2. present the award.

This policy does not address awards that a student may achieve independent of the school or where the decision on who receives the award rests with an outside agency. (Example: AMEB Music exams, Scout Badges, Australian Mathematics Competition).

Organisation

Awards are grouped in categories based on the achievement they are presented to acknowledge:

- Academic achievement
- Attendance
- Application and Industry
- Special Awards
 - The Arts
 - Sport
 - Leadership and School Service.

Definitions

Level of Achievement (LoA) – commonly referred to as Grades, these are A-E ratings, with A being the highest and E being the lowest. A rating of N indicates the student is Not Rated for that area.

Grade, Behaviour and Effort Point Average (GPA, BPA & EPA) – LoAs are converted to a number and averaged across all subjects each term (A=5, B=4, C=3, D=2, E=1). GPA, BPA and EPA are expressed as a number between 0 and 5, to two decimal places. Vocational Education and Training competencies are not used in the calculation.

Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority (QCAA) – is a statutory body of the Queensland Government. The QCAA plays a critical role in the design and delivery of education in Queensland in collaboration with a range of stakeholders and partner agencies. Subjects offered at school that receive an A-E LoA are QCAA subjects.

Vocational Education and Training (VET) - Designed to deliver workplace-specific skills and knowledge, VET covers a wide range of careers and industries, including trade and office work, retail, hospitality and technology. Subjects offered at school or with external agencies that are assessed on a competency basis.

Appendix 5A: ADF Future Innovators Award Selection Criteria

Using the ADF Future Innovators Selection Criteria as a guide, describe a situation/s where nominee's have demonstrated motivation and innovation in the areas of STEM within school and displayed the qualities of strong personal ethical values, such as doing one's best.

The Australian Defence Force (ADF) Future Innovators Award has been designed to recognise recipients' science and mathematics abilities while highlighting the value the Navy, Army and Air Force place on STEM skills and STEM career opportunities within Defence.

The awards are a means to formally recognise those students who have demonstrated motivation and innovation in the areas of STEM within their school, and who display strong personal ethical values, such as doing one's best.

Participation in the awards program is open to all Australian schools with students enrolled in Year 10 and/or Year 12. Participation is of course voluntary and at the discretion of individual school principals.

The program supports the presentation of up to two awards to successful students each year from participating schools – one from Year 10 and another from Year 12.

It is recommended that schools identify Future Innovators award recipients in accordance with the attached ADF selection guidelines, which promote the requisite behaviours and attributes expected of future leaders by both the ADF and Australian society.

School principals are strongly encouraged to use a transparent selection process that is equitable and robust under scrutiny, such as selection by committee rather than by an individual.

Where possible, Awards should be presented during school events such as Speech Nights, Presentation events or other appropriate school assemblies. Accordingly, schools are requested to provide the ADF with an opportunity for a member to attend the presentation ceremony, as a representative of the Chief of the Defence Force.

Please note that, where approved to do so, the names of schools with award winners may be made available to local media.

By following the recommended guidelines and selection criteria, schools will help to ensure the ADF Future Innovators Awards continue to be a successful means of recognising and encouraging many of Australia's future leaders along a pathway to success.
